

Why is this course useful to you?

Why is this course useful to you?

- Learn fundamental programming concepts
- Learn algorithms
- Practice logic thinking
- Learn Java
- Can apply the knowledge to any other programming language
- Useful on CV, for job applications
- Useful in future computing courses
- Useful in other projects, unrelated to computing

- Programming is fun and addictive !

What do I expect from you?

What do I expect from you?

- Come to lectures and labs.
- Be on time for classes.
- Do not disrupt class by talking when I talk.
- Be active in class, solve exercises, ask questions, express opinions when it is the case.
- Prepare for class, do the work.
- If you bring your laptop to class, use it only for the class. Do not use your phone during class.
- Manage your time (life work schedule)
- Be professional and ethical, do not cheat !!!
- Get help if you need, early in the term (office hours of prof and TAs, study group, student counsellor).

What do you expect from me?

What do you expect from me?

- Cover all the required material.
- Prepare good teaching materials.
- Be well prepared.
- Be on time for class.
- Teach well, clearly.
- Give practical examples.
- Mark assignments and exams fairly and timely. Give feedback.
- Be available outside the class: office hours, and by email.
- Manage the teaching assistants (TAs).
- Be enthusiastic.
- Be professional and ethical.